

DIANA KAZAKOVA

is a an extensively trained theatre performer raised on folk music.
is an esteemed producer and vocal coach.

Diana's new release THE RESET: ambient folk for tangled times, is an acoustic offering from the heart of a global pandemic. This album was recorded in the East Village. With so much chaos in our networks... this music encourages a return to a more natural hum of being. In collaboration with Agnes Kowalski (producer and therapist), this unique album will be released worldwide.

Her next album – THE CHELSEA HOTEL & OTHER STORIES will feature Ben Smith, (Heart/Roadcase Royale), Katie Kresek (Adele, Beyonce), Peter Stroud, (Sheryl Crow/Sarah McLachlan), Richard Hammond (Hamilton/Joan Osborne), Ben Butler (Sting/George Michael) along with many additional inspiring players from across the continent, including members of the infamous Yacht Rock Revue.

Diana has performed with the Indigo Girls, Enya, The Canadian Tenors, The cast of the Lion King in Concert, and many more. She has played lead roles in over a dozen Equity musicals and plays and has worked with many Broadway performers. In the role of producer, she has worked with top musicians, singers, dancers, and actors from around the world including Quincy Jones, Tony Bennett, John Mayer, and Keith Richards, Drake and P Diddy and more.
